

Days of Future 2016 Arnoldstein

Future force diversity – There is nothing more to be said, now it's time for action!

Klosterruine Arnoldstein, June 14th to 17th 2016

Programme (as of January 18th 2016, subject to change)

Tuesday, June 14th 2016, Klosterruine Arnoldstein

(by invitation only)

Get together project teams of 2015 and 2016

02.00 – 05.00 pm: Get together project teams of 2015
Exchange of experience, networking, preparations for the Lab of Future
German

06.00 pm: Get together project teams & coaches of 2016
Getting to know each other, assignment of team coaches, initial exchanges at dinner
German/English

Wednesday, June 15th 2016, Klosterruine Arnoldstein

Invitation only for project teams of 2015 und 2016, coaches, experts and cooperation partners

Lab of Future

08.30 am Check-In with experts at Klosterruine

09.00 am Welcome, schedule and goals of the day
Introduction of experts by the host
Learnings & Failings of the teams of 2015

10.00 am Coffee and start of Workshops 1

12.30 pm Lunch

02.00 pm Workshops 2

04.00 pm Coffee break

06.00 pm Plenum

07.00 pm Dinner & Music & Dance

German/English

Thursday, June 16th 2016

Towards A More Diverse Future: Global Challenges - Local Experiences

(Congress day 1, participation fee)

In Kooperation mit dem Rachel Carson Center for Environment and Society, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität Munich and Institut International de Prospective sur les Ecosystèmes Innovants, Université Catholique de Lille

- 08.30 am Check-In
09.00 am Welcome and introduction
09.30 am Impulse presentations followed by short minigroup discussions
Claudine Villemot-Kienzle, Center of Human Emergence, Germany
Linda Groff, Emeritus Professor, Political Science & Futures Studies, California State University, USA
Michel Saloff-Coste, Institut International de Prospective sur les Ecosystèmes Innovants, Université Catholique de Lille, France
Shéhérazade Benzerga, Innovationmanagement, France
Marcus Andreas, Rachel Carson Center, Germany (tbc)
Students from the Environmental Studies Program of the Rachel Carson Center
Gary Martin, Direktor Global Diversity Foundation, United Kingdom-Morocco (tbc)
- 01.00 pm Lunch
- 02.30 pm Reflection on essential questions via World-Café
04.30 pm Résumé in the plenum
05.00 pm Break
05.30 pm 4th Planetary Awards
Art and a variety of delicacies from the Alps-Adriatic region in cooperation with Club tre popoli and Carinthian International Club

German/English

Friday, June 17th 2016

Marketplace of Future

(Congress Day 2, participation fee)

08.30 am	Check-In
09.00 am	Welcome
09.30 am	Future force diversity: Learnings of the Lab of Future
10.00 am	Information sharing over a coffee
10.30 am	Welcome to „Future Space 1“ Short presentation of the first 6 projects of the Lab of Future, afterwards 6 workshops running in parallel for further thought and action
12.15 pm	Lunch
01.45 pm	Welcome to „Future Space 2“ The next 6 project teams inspire with their ideas and invite to their workshops
03.30 pm	Coffee break
04.00 pm	Marketplace of Future with all projects At the Marketplace of Future conference participants can visit all 12 projects, strengthen existing contacts and share resources.
05.30 pm	Plenum, reaping the benefits of the Days of Future together, presentation of the Future-Mentoring Awards for selected projects
06.30 pm	Fare-well

German/English